Hello. My name is Jerry Melchisedeck, Sr. and I am honored to introduce to you Matthew & Annette Hutcheson. I am a retired Air Force Lieutenant Colonel and served in the Pentagon as the executive assistant to Major General, Leslie Bray, Director of the Air Force Doctrine Concepts and Objectives. He reported directly to the three-star general overseeing the Vietnam War. After the war ended, I oversaw admissions and recruiting over a 10-state region as Southeastern Regional Director of Admissions for the Air Force Academy here in Colorado Springs.

I am now a successful business partner with my wife, Tammy. The purpose of this communication is to introduce you to my dear friends, Matt and Annette Hutcheson. They have the most inspiring story of triumph over tragedy that I personally know of. They share their story over a heart-pounding, edge-of-your-seat, 90-minute-long presentation never to be forgotten. Their presentations might be aptly described as "inspirational entertainment."

We all struggle with the difficulties of life and these two champions have something to share with the world. They are goodwill ambassadors to the world with no agenda other than to inspire and share. They charge a base plus a per-attendee fee which can be easily covered by a small door fee. With enough attendance, the door fee income will far exceed the cost which is worth every penny. If you like, these fees can be easily financed through a portal to a consortium of FDIC insured banks who support Matt and Annette's efforts and message. A portion of the per-attendee fee is donated to organizations who help homeless or struggling single mothers with children.

In addition, the Hutcheson's sell their books and a variety of augmentative products that help to defeat one's defeat. I truly hope you take the opportunity to make space for a special event to which the Hutcheson's can come and share their message of triumph with your organization.

Feel free to speak with me directly if you would like to discuss this further.

Sincerely, Jerry Melchisedeck, Sr. [Lt. Col. Air Force, Ret.]

ANNETTE HUTCHESON
AUTHOR, AWARD-WINNING ENTREPRENEUR

Annette Hutcheson is a wife of 32 years and a mother of four. In 2012, her life was torn apart when her husband, Matthew, was arrested by the FBI at gunpoint. He was later convicted and sentenced to 17 years in federal prison. During the ensuing years, she raised four children by herself. Home lost, friends lost, business lost. Everything, including her husband, gone. She went back to college, obtained a formal legal education, and through the court system got her husband out of prison seven years early. Matthew spent three of those ten years in solitary confinement or its equivalent. Yet they kept their family together, their love alive, and their heads on straight. They defeated their defeat and caused failure to fail. They now share with others how they did it.

“LOOK TO THE FUTURE”

“One of the most stunning triumph stories of our day.”

Jay Inman, Lt. Col. ARMY Ret.

Matthew Hutcheson is a former advisor to two American Presidents, both Houses of Congress, and an Amicus to the United States Supreme Court. In 2012 he found himself indicted by a federal grand jury after a political dispute that became a political attack. He was falsely accused of an economic crime and spent ten years in prison.

“The global fascination and curiosity surrounding The Philosophy of Hutch™ is being driven by how it empowers others to overcome tragedy.”

“Hutcheson’s
‘UNSTOPPABLE FORCE’
may be one of the best motivational speeches EVER.”

“Want to know why you will never hear Matthew D. Hutcheson or Annette, his wife, complain about what the government did to them? Or why you will never hear from them anything close to ‘victim’ or ‘woe is me’ talk? Because their story is not about what was done to them. Their story is about what they did to it! They stone-cold killed their tragedy! They defeated their defeat! They caused their failure to fail! They first subdued, then conquered the crisis, and ultimately ascended over it!”

Jerry Melchisedeck, Sr.
(Lt. Col. Air Force, Ret.)

Wrapped in Awe-Inspiring Prison Stories, the Hutcheson's Give Profound Insight Into Questions such as:

- Is there purpose in suffering?
- How can suffering transmute into excellence?
- Why do joy and tragedy go hand-in-hand?
- What is vicissitude?
- How does vicissitude help us?
- Can defeat be defeated?
- Can failure be caused to fail?
- Can triumphing over defeat be considered the new pinnacle of success?
